Frankfort,, The Römerberg is a large open space in the centre of Old Frankfort of which it is the centre On one side is the Römer, a collection of old and modern buildings used as a Town Hall, and in the centre the Justitia Fountain erected 1543 and restored 1887. This square has been on National Festivals the scene of public rejoicings, such as Goethe describes, and on one of these occasions the Fountain ran for, one hour and a half with red and white wine!
